STONE HARBOR RESORT WINS TITLE OF BEST LAKESHORE RESORT IN WISCONSIN

Sturgeon Bay, WI – Stone Harbor Resort was named “Best Lakeshore Resort” at the Wisconsin Governor’s Conference on Tourism in March 2008 in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Cited for delivering world-class service each and every day, Stone Harbor Resort’s smart business practices and great hospitality was honored as being vital to Wisconsin’s economic climate.

Voted by the readers of Wisconsin Meetings magazine in a national survey under nine categories that cater to convention and meeting professionals, Stone Harbor’s General Manager and Executive Chef, Nancy and Steve Bertz, were recognized for their dedication to establishing the 8-year-old resort’s reputation for top-notch service and accommodating guests.

Stone Harbor Resort is Door County’s largest conference center, located on the water just steps away from historic downtown Sturgeon Bay. With meeting and event space that can accommodate up to 450 people in its 6,500 square feet of flexible meeting space, 161 guest rooms, and a first-class restaurant and pub.
